The National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame makes no claim that it is the owner of any copyright in the materials contained in its library and archives. In providing access to such materials, the Museum does not assume any responsibility for obtaining or granting permission for publication or use. The responsibility for determining the nature and ownership of any rights and for obtaining the appropriate permissions to publish or use such materials rests entirely with the researcher.

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS<sup>1</sup>

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

The institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law.<sup>2</sup>

I, _____ understand and agree to the terms listed above. I agree to appropriately acknowledge, footnote, or credit the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame for any information derived from the collection. I understand that permission to publish copyright material must be obtained from the appropriate holder of the copyright.
